

KENNA MARIE JOHNSTON
Mechanical Engineer
Accredited Reconstructionist
The Crash Lab, Inc.

Post Office Box 850
Hampton, N.H. 03843-0850
(603) 926-0624 - FAX: (603) 929-0744
e-mail: kenna@thecrashlab.com
www.TheCrashLab.com

OBJECTIVE:

To incorporate engineering knowledge and physics theories with accident reconstruction principles to evaluate and analyze data.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- The Crash Lab, Inc., Accident Reconstructionist, June, 2002 – present
- The Accreditation Commission for Traffic Accident Reconstruction, Accredited Traffic Accident Reconstructionist, ACTAR #1394, effective June 20, 2003
- Recognized Expert to give testimony before States Courts
- Preparation of Collision Reconstruction for Counsel in Civil and Criminal Litigation, ~ 50/50% Civil Plaintiff/Defendant case ratio
- Adjunct Faculty member, University of North Florida, Institute of Police Technology & Management, (IPTM), Jacksonville, FL
- Member, Strafford County Regional Traffic Accident Reconstruction Team (SCRTAR)
- Member, Board of Directors, National Association of Professional Accident Reconstruction Specialists, Inc., (NAPARS)
- Member, Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE), Accident Investigation / Reconstruction Practices (AIRP) Standards Committee
- National Institute for Automotive Service Excellence (ASE), Certified Automobile Technician, December 2002-June 2008
- State of Maine, Department of Public Safety, Licensed Private Investigator, current

TRAFFIC COLLISION RECONSTRUCTION INSTRUCTOR:

- Instructor, Applied Physics in Accident Reconstruction, University of North Florida, IPTM: London, OH, August 2006
- Instructor, CDR Technician Course, Hampton, NH, April 2007
- Instructor, CDR Technician Course, Hampton, NH, February 2008
- Co-Instructor, Total Station Operation, Somersworth, NH, April 2008
- Instructor, Nighttime Visibility and Light Testing, Farmington, NH, February 2009